TELEVISION IN 2025

1. Television networks will deliver their programming directly to the consumer, divorcing themselves of their local affiliates.
2. Cable companies become a major IP backbone for television.
3. The same goes for the telcos.
4. Television will be delivered through some form of IPTV.
5. Networks/cable channels reside side-by-side on smart TVs.

TELEVISION IN 2025

6. Networks/cable channels will deliver their programming through websites.
7. Continuing consolidation in the television industries will leave only a handful of major integrated players.
8. Advertising will be interactive, customizable, and targeted.
9. Search will be as easy as “1, 2, 3” – or “1, 2” – or even “1”.
